

Sheldon Silver, the Democratic head of New York's Assembly, is proposing that the NY SAFE Act be amended to allow for sales of new ten round magazines, an increase from the limit of seven rounds which will apply beginning April 15, 2013. Governor Cuomo is reported to oppose this change. News reports can be found here and here.

Renzulli Law Firm is Monitoring NY SAFE Act Developments

Renzulli Law Firm, nationally recognized as one of the premier law firms in the country serving the Firearms Industry, is monitoring developments about the NY SAFE Act and publishing regular updates which are available by e-mail and on this website. Any questions you may have about the NY SAFE Act should be directed to John F. Renzulli or Christopher Renzulli.